

Who Do You Say That I Am?

TJP 2023 Lenten Retreat

Retreat Week Two

I Am a Loved Sinner: Part 1 – Sin's History

Comprehending our identity as one with God is to become aware of how much God loves us. To come to a profound awareness of this love, Ignatius desires us to put sin in its proper perspective: sin as systemic and all around us. Damian offers what Ignatius strategizes as revealing the cosmic context for understanding ourselves. We are loved sinners, and this is our first dive into seeing how loved we actually are.

Take a moment to reflect on the three stories
(click the link to download each story):

- The Sin of the Angels
- The Sin of Adam and Eve
- The Sin of Others

Questions for Reflection:

- How do you feel when you reflect on these stories?
- What emotions or thoughts come up for you as you read them?
- What do these stories say to you about sin?

Suggested Scripture:

- Luke 7:37-50
- Galatians 5:16-26
- Psalm 51

Song for Reflection:

- The Longing by All Sons & Daughters
- Shiloh by Audrey Assad
